DELEGATES that I am inclined to accede to their wishes. I recognize the fact that it is assential to protect the farming interest of the county, and, being a farmer. I think I know their wants. The great question at issue, however, is the State debt. My idea is to settle it by readjustment at once, and I am favorable to a speedy settlement by active legislation, which will be alike honorable to the State and just to the creditors. If elected I shall be untiring in your behalf and faithful to the interest of my constituency.

MARRIAGES.

August is not a very favorable month for marrying, but during the month twentyrico Court clerk issued eleven licensesseven to white and four to colored couples FLOUR INSPECTED.

The following is a statement of the flour inspected in Richmond during the month ending the 31st of August, 1877: Family, 1,892 barrels; extra superfine, 5,254 barrels; superfine, 280 barrels; fine, 29 barrels; middlings, 9 barrels; condemned, 14 barrels.

POLICE COURT. During the past month 404 criminal cases were disposed of in the Police Court and 151 ordinance violations tried. On criminal charges 19 persons were sent on to the Hustings Court for indictment, 17 were sent to jail on conviction of assault and battery or petit larceny, and 27 in default of surety for their good behavior. Fines collected-City, 8188; State, $118.75; costs, $95.96-total,

DEEDS RECORDED. One hundred and forty-four deeds were received for record in the clerk's office of the Chancery Court during the month of August. Within the same period sixty-one deeds were received for record in the clerk's office of Henrico County Court.

FIRE-ALARMS. There were only four alarms of fire during the past month.

CORONER'S CASES. During August the coroner has not been busy. Seven cases have been disposed of, the most prominent of which was a case of infanticide. REVENUE COLLECTIONS. The United States internal-revenue receipts for this district during this month amount to $312,130.19. Collector Russell reports this as the largest monthly collection of the year.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS .- The Board of Henrico County Supervisors held a meeting yesterday and decided to call upon the Governor on Wednesday and contract with him for the hire of twenty convicts to work the county roads. They also resolved to employ a superintendent to take charge of the force, and to allow him $2 per day, ten hours to constitute a day's work. They also decided to employ a sufficient guard (not more than three persons) at $1.50 per day of ten hours, but the time employed in bringing the convicts to and from the penitentiary not to be included in the ten hours The price to be paid for a driver, team, and cart, $1.50 per day; and for a driver, wagon, and team, $2 per day.

A number of claims were allowed. Adjourned.

ANOTHER MILITARY COMPANY .- The young men of Church Hill have become smitten with the military fever, and are in process of getting up a new volunteer company Some splendid material exists on the Hill It is intended so to restrict the membership that the company shall be first-class in all respects: Already near forty names are on the list, and it is expected in a short time that the number will be doubled. Whether the company will constitute an independent organization or attach itself to the First Virginia regiment has not been determined. It is, however, in contemplation to tender the command to a late line officer of the regiment, whose name is a guarantee that the company will amply meet every soldierly requirement.

Dog-Show .- At the next Lynchburg Fair, to be held October 23d, there will be a bench show" of imported and native setters. The sum of $106 has already been subscribed for premiums, but the gentlemen who have the matter in hand desire to raise a larger amount, and ask the cooperation of citizens of Richmond not only in contributions to the premium fund, but in entries of fine dogs to compete for the prizes. Only setters will be exhibited. Full information concerning the proposed show can be obtained by addressing Mr. William A. Strother, No. 126 Main street, Lynchburg, Va.

CITY TAXES .- To-day the City Collector, want of time it will be impossible for more than one official call to be made.

DEATH OF MR. FEENEY .- Mr. John Feeney, whose death was announced in yesterday's Dispatch, died of an attack of apodeath, but was better on Thursday. He ture. Respectfully, will be buried from St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. THE CITY'S OBLIGATIONS .- It is gratifying
